Challenges and Opportunities of PAAR	Locally it is the future of our MLS, and my suggestion is a Regional MLS. Nationally, it is the changes in our industry. Can't change that, just train agents how to function properly in the new era and work with each other.
PAAR Future	Being a resource for the local agent to go to when it comes to helping them succeed and build their business (outside of Broker specific responsibilities)
PAAR Director Perception	It should be someone who gets along well with their fellow Realtors and listens to their needs and concerns, then voices those to the board and comes up with solutions. I like to think I am kind and easy to get along with, and willing to listen to the perspectives of others even if they don't align with my points of view.
Is there any additional information you would like to contribute to your application?	I may be young, but I have been in this business since 2015. That's long enough to have seen a thing or two change, and now I'm ready to help make changes for the better.
