Challenges and Opportunities of PAAR	To continue to build PAAR's relevancy and benefit for members in a changing Association marketplace. It is important for PAAR to evaluate new and re evaluate existing member benefits to continually evolve to exceed members needs in furthering their Real Estate careers.
PAAR Future	Engagement with and help lead other state associations to continue to build on our Regionalization and networking to better serve the whole of Northern AZ.
PAAR President-Elect Perception	President elect's role is to shadow the President to prepare them to seamlessly assume the role of President. I believe I have prepared myself for this role Having served on the PAAR BOD directors for 4 years, 2 of which as Treasurer elect and Treasurer. I have also served on Various local charity Boards, including role as Vice President and President.
Is there any additional information you would like to contribute to your application?	I have enjoyed serving on the team at PAAR BOD for these past few years, and am eager to continue to help our local Realtors have their voices heard through Advocacy and Participation on a State and National Level.
