PAAR Director Expectations	Serving as a PAAR Director requires collaborative governance, fiduciary responsibility, and a commitment to protecting the grassroots voice of our membership. The role is about upholding our strategic pillars by actively supporting member success, protecting private property rights, and maintaining a strong impact within our local community. Leadership should always remain transparent, forward-thinking, and directly aligned with the daily needs of the REALTORS® we represent. My hands-on involvement with the Young Professionals Network task force gives me a direct perspective on the challenges and goals facing our local real estate community. Additionally, my professional background in software engineering allows me to offer an analytical approach to problem-solving and modernizing the digital tools and infrastructure our members rely on. I bring an objective, collaborative mindset to the Board and am deeply dedicated to ensuring our membership remains the driving force behind association governance.
