PAAR Future	I see four opportunities: modernizing CE and professional development around interactive, real-world learning; helping members fully adopt PAAR's MLS and learn CRM usage and tech tools through peer-led support; strengthening ties with local government to protect property rights and informing members; and building mentorship pathways that bring new leaders into committee and volunteer roles.
PAAR Director Expectations	A Director's job is governance, not personal agenda — voting on budget, policy, and strategic priorities on behalf of the full membership, then standing behind the board's decisions even when they differ from my own view. My MBA/BSBA background in finance and strategy and current service on the Yavapai County Food Safety Industry Council support that oversight role, while building my practice with Realty ONE Group Mountain Desert keeps me close to the day-to-day realities newer agents face.
Code of Conduct
Is there any additional information you would like to contribute to your application?	My Ed.D./M.Ed. background reflects a commitment to continuous learning, and I hold several national credentials (MRP, PMN, PSA, RENE, RSPS, SRES), with additional ones currently in progress. I'm guided by the REALTOR® Code of Ethics and a commitment to serving PAAR's membership with integrity and transparency.
