Challenges and Opportunities of PAAR	Member involvement seems low. We have a large group of members that don't even vote on some paramount issues that directly impact all of us as Realtors. I'm not sure what the solution is, but that's why I'm applying for a board seat. I can't expect people to do what I wouldn't do myself, so here I am.
PAAR Future	Membership growth, and at some point, a potential membership merge of some kind.
PAAR Director Perception	I believe my 18 years in direct real estate sales and my 5 years of real estate office management gives me a reasonable insight into the challenges of both association members and the challenges of how to manage and lead an association of this size in an ever changing (and sometimes volatile) market demographic.
Is there any additional information you would like to contribute to your application?	I love the place I have called home for almost 5 decades, and I think my input and increased participation could be an asset to our area Association of Realtors.
