PAAR's Strategic Plan	Yes
PAAR Future	I envision PAAR growing as both an educator and a community leader. With Prescott's large veteran population, I'd like to see expanded VA loan and military relocation training so every member can serve those families well. I also see opportunity in developing newer agents through mentorship and modern marketing education, and in making PAAR a more visible public resource on housing in our region.
PAAR Director Expectations	My understanding is that a PAAR Director attends board meetings regularly, reviews committee recommendations, votes in the best interest of the full membership, and represents the Association professionally in our community. I believe I'm well prepared for that responsibility. As an Army veteran with prior service in law enforcement and as a firefighter and EMT, my career has been built on accountability, teamwork, and service. My wife and I run our real estate business on those same values. My strengths are reliable follow-through, calm decision making, and a genuine commitment to this community, and I would bring that same dependability to the board.
Code of Conduct
Is there any additional information you would like to contribute to your application?	Only that I'm humbled that my name was brought up and that I don't take the nomination lightly. Service has been the theme of my life, from the Army to the fire service to real estate, and serving the association that has supported my career would be a privilege. If selected, I'll show up prepared, engaged, and committed to representing every member well.
